

I am strongly opposed to any efforts to deregulate the industry. More diversity in choice and content is vital to a healthy and functionaing democracy. Do not make the salme mistake woth TV and newsprint as you did with radio, which is now homogonized and practically useless for entertainment and informative value.